MOBILE FOOD OPERATIONS: License # _____

Mobile food trucks (and pushcarts) must include a list of sites on their route and hand wash/toilet facilities available.

The operator of any mobile food operation must have an inspection of the vehicle and operation during the month of December. Registration Numbers of vehicles must be on all applications. Changes of Registration numbers must be reported to the Board of Health Immediately upon change. No permits will be renewed without an inspection. Operation of a mobile food operation after December 31, 2007, without a permit is a violation of state and local regulations, and results in a fine of $50.00 for each day of violation. You may make an appointment for an inspection at the office of the Board of Health, 121 Glen Road, Wilmington, at (978) 658-4298. Mobile Food Venders are also advised that sales of foods, which are not properly labeled, stored, or individually packaged is a violation of regulations and is punishable by a fine of $50.00 and/or suspension of the food license.

The following MUST be included with this application:

- ☐ Copy of Certificate of Completion of Food Protection Management Course
- ☐ Workman's Compensation Insurance Affidavit
- ☐ Certificate of Insurance
