

WATER SAVER TIP

BROWN LAWN?

When well-established lawns turn golden brown, they're not dead. They've gone dormant and will green up again when it rains. This actually deepens the roots and makes the lawn more drought resistant.

